APLD New England Chapter Designer Showcase

SUDBURY, MASS., Oct. 27, 2008—The landscape design work of Maria von Brincken, Maria von Brincken Landscape Garden Design was featured in the Association of Professional Landscape Designers (APLD) New England Chapter Designer Showcase. It was presented at the Landscape Institute, Arnold Arboretum, Cambridge, MA during the month of October 2008.

Designers from four states participated with a range of projects—residential, urban parks, urban institutions, and commercial. Entry gardens featured courtyards and drives, walks, steps, and landings, fencing and stone walls, planting plans and landscape lighting. Back gardens featured swimming pools, outdoor kitchens, waterfalls and pools, fountains, stone walls and terraces, sculpture, planting plans and landscape lighting.

Maria von Brincken contributed 10 landscape images of the Wayland Estate project for the power point presentation. In the gallery landscape plans depicted the projected design in a continuous slide presentation.
